Artemide Tolomeo Basculante 2 Bracci Suspension

The Tolomeo Basculante 2 Bracci Suspension is characterised by its two arms, which open out from a single central stem. Each arm is spring-balanced, allowing for simple movement of the two diffusers. This adjustable design is synonymous with the Tolomeo Collection, originally launched in 1987. With an innovative spring system, the Basculante 2 Bracci Suspension strikes a balance between function and aesthetics.

The movable frame, crafted from polished aluminium, allows users to direct light precisely where required, making it a well-suited lighting solution for use in office spaces or above a dining table. The diffusers are available in parchment or silk and come in four different sizes. This allows the Basculante 2 Bracci Suspension to fit into a range of spaces, in both residential and commercial settings.
