Moooi Valentine Baby Suspension

The Valentine Baby Suspension is a design by Marcel Wanders for Dutch lighting and furniture manufacturer, Moooi. The smaller version of the Valentine Suspended Lamp, the Valentine Baby measures 21cm in diameter. When illuminated, light is reflected from the interior mirrored surface and refracted through the patterned glass diffuser, creating a subtle play of light and shadows. This warm glow of light sparkles of romance, transforming a simple shell into an endless light bouquet.

Valentine Baby has a metal-plated shade in a choice of black, chrome or gold finish, which adds a sense of luxury to the design. Display on its own or in multiples to create a unique installation. The lights are suitable for residential and commercial projects, and blend seamlessly into hospitality settings. Each shade is suspended from a transparent cord, creating the appearance of floating weightlessly mid-air.
