Santa & Cole Dorica Floor Lamp by Santa & Cole

Designed by Jordi Miralbell and Mariona Raventós in 1994, the Dorica floor light stays current as ever with a timeless design that combines fabric and metal. The large lampshade is made from natural ribbon, reminiscent of Greek columns that stand tall and sturdy. The structure is made from a sleek brown metal that reaches through the top of the shade, finished with a unique leather grip which adds a touch of naturalness to the floor lamp.

The Dorica floor lamp can be used in a wide variety of settings thanks to its warm and diffused glow. The floor light is slimline to fit into any type of interior and also features a dimmer switch to create the exact ambience you need. Available with or without a stabilising base this floor light will serve as a useful and atmospheric lamp.
