Artemide Tolomeo Reading LED Floor Lamp

The Artemide Reading LED Floor Lamp is part of the iconic Tolomeo Collection, designed by Michele De Lucchi and Giancarlo Fassina. Characterised by clean and minimalist lines, the Reading Floor Lamp perfectly balances functionality and aesthetics. Its aluminium form establishes its contemporary appearance, while giving the lamp notable lightness and durability.

The Artemide Reading LED Floor Lamp casts directed lighting. The integrated LED light source and aluminium reflector ensure bright, functional light with uniform distribution. Its innovative spring mechanism ensures flexibility in use, allowing users to easily adjust the lamp's height and tilt, to direct light precisely where required. Its long lower arm makes it an ideal lighting solution for use beside a sofa or desk. Display in an office, bedroom, or reading nook where functional lighting is essential.
