Marset Scotch Club Ceiling light

Xavier Mañosa and master ceramicist Mashallah were inspired by the revolving disco ball to create Scotch Club! Production is traditional and meticulous to create the high-quality ceramic required, it is fired in the kiln four times and coated with specially made glazes for this collection. Marset Scotch Club ceiling light features a multifaceted shade with an enamel interior in a white or gold finish. Available in six finishes.

Scotch Club ceiling light is ideal for hallways, kitchens & dining rooms, providing a good amount of direct light below as well as being highly decorative.

Marset Scotch Club collection also features a pendant light and wall light.
