Santa & Cole Cestita Table Lamp

The Cestita is the little sister of Miguel Milá's very famous Cesta lamp, both designed nearly fifty years ago. The Cestita table lamp creates a pleasant ambience, and the wooden handle makes moving the lamp tactile and easy to move around.

An iconic, almost traditional piece and reminiscent of Japanese lanterns, the Cestita table light catches the eye with its charming design and pairs beautifully with the larger Cesta light. The Cestita has a cherry wood structure paired with the choice between a white opal polyethene or white opal glass shade. Let yourself be enchanted by this whimsical table lamp.
