PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Thomas Bernstrand

Studio Pendant by Muuto

Thomas Bernstrand envisioned to create a pendant light that was stripped down to the bare essential. The Studio pendant is just that, a reinterpretation of the pendant archetype with character. Bernstrand follows unconventional ways in his designs and that has led him to world wide recognition and awards for his products.

The Studio is available in a white colour option, and it has become a best seller for both private and commercial settings. You can install the Studio light above a dining table or kitchen counter; its large size makes it ideal for open spaces and high ceiling rooms.
