Wan Recessed Downlight by Flos

This fully recessed model of the Wan downlight by designer Johanna Grawunder is a minimal and contemporary light designed to be used in multiples. The body is made from aluminium, and named after the Japanese word for "bowl" the Wan downlight is a petite and modern fitting.

Providing focused, glare free and direct light, the Wan recessed downlight is perfect for use in dressing rooms, kitchens, dining rooms, studies and also in for use in commercial properties. Available in four colour finishes, chrome, white, green and black, this recessed downlight makes a great stylish addition to modern interiors.

The Flos Wan collection also includes a ceiling/wall fitting, a semi-recessed model and a pendant light.
