Taraxacum 88 Pendant Light by Flos

The aesthetic of the Taraxacum 88 remains as contemporary now as it did at its inception in 1988 by designer Achille Castiglioni. A stylish suspension providing a dramatic focal point to any room, the Taraxacum 88 pendant light provides dramatic light to any residential or commercial space with its multiple exposed clusters of bulbs.

Available in two sizes, the S1 and S2, and also in a wall version, the Taraxacum 88 pendant houses either 60 or 120 individual bulbs (dependant on size choice) providing brilliant and unrivalled illumination. The Taraxacum 88 pendant lamp suits entrances, large living spaces and commercial properties such as hotels or boutiques, adding a unique sense of drama and heaps of light.
