Innermost Parasol LED Table Lamp

The Innermost Parasol Table Lamp, designed by Jonas Forsman, brings warmth and creativity to interiors with its parasol-inspired shade. This unique design allows light to reflect softly, creating an inviting glow that can be easily directed by adjusting the shade's angle. Featuring a built-in, dimmable 10W LED, the Parasol Lamp adapts effortlessly to various settings, making it ideal for home and commercial environments. Constructed from durable steel and available in three colours, the Parasol Table Lamp is both functional and stylish, seamlessly blending into any modern decor while adding a playful twist.
