Anglepoise Original 1227 Pendant

The Anglepoise Original 1227 Pendant combines the traditional 1227 shade shape, first released in 1935, with an attractive braided cable. The instantly recognisable silhouette offers a timeless and attractive presence that suits both residential and commercial spaces. The 1227 Pendant is available in Dove Grey and Linen White and is provided with a ceiling rose in a matching finish for a sense of balance.

The Anglepoise Original 1227 Pendant provides a beam of downward-directed light. This makes the pendant perfect for lighting a kitchen island, dining table, or office area. Install individually or in a series of multi-coloured shades to create a striking visual feature. With a fabric-covered cord and traditional chrome fittings, the Original 1227 Pendant blends form with functionality for an attractive lighting solution that adds a decorative touch to any interior.
