PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Sir Kenneth Grange

Anglepoise Type 75 Desk Lamp

The Type 75 Desk Lamp is one of Anglepoise's best-selling lamps and is the result of 80 years of refining exactly what a desk lamp should be. Expertly blending form and function, the Type 75 boasts the quality and features expected from Anglepoise, paired with a classic and attractive aesthetic. Designed by Sir Kenneth Grange, the 75 is inspired by the original Anglepoise Model 75, released in 1960, reimagined with up-to-date features to suit a modern audience.

The Type 75 Desk Lamp casts a wide beam of light, perfect for working by. Thanks to its innovative spring mechanism, the frame can be easily moved to any position, allowing users to direct light precisely where required. Display on a desk, beside a sofa, or at a bedside for a functional reading light and a stylish addition to the room. Combining both quality and elegance, the Type 75 Desk Lamp is a celebration of British design history.
