Anglepoise Type 75 Floor Lamp

Designed by the Anglepoise Design Director, Sir Kenneth Grange, the Type 75 floor lamp is part of the Anglepoise Type 75 range, a collection that combines classic Anglepoise design with an updated, fresh eye to create a contemporary lamp.

Having all the benefits of the Type 75 desk lamp, the Type 75 floor light has a fixed pole with a movable arm on top, allowing for directional and adjustable light. This floor lamp also has the iconic Anglepoise spring mechanism, which means you can move the lamp with the lightest touch to stay perfectly in place. With modern lines and a chic style, this popular floor light is suitable in home and professional settings and works wondrously as a reading or lounge light.
