Oluce Stones Outdoor Floor Light

Designed by Marta Laudani & Marco Romanelli in 2001, the Oluce Stones Outdoor Floor Light is a luminous, nature-inspired fixture that brings elegance to outdoor settings. Resembling natural rocks, these opaline Murano blown glass lamps emit a soft and diffused light that spreads evenly in all directions. The discreet design allows them to blend seamlessly into gardens, terraces, or patios, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

With an IP65 rating, the Stones Outdoor Floor Light is built to withstand outdoor conditions while maintaining its sophisticated aesthetic. Available in two sizes, small or medium, these versatile lamps can be displayed individually or arranged in clusters for a dramatic effect. The Stones Outdoor Floor Light is a perfect addition to alfresco spaces, providing both functionality and style.
