PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Arturo Alvarez

a-emotional light Blum Pendant Light

The Blum Pendant is designed by renowned designer and innovator Arturo Alvarez. Alvarez, who often references nature in his work, has created this pendant using steel thread. Each thread is hand-woven around itself until it forms small spheres which are later joined to form an ethereal structure that seems almost weightless. This results in an otherwise cold-looking steel appearing full of life and ready to bloom.

The subtle elegance of The Blum Pendant means it can slip into any design scheme seamlessly. It is perfect for adding warm, ambient light into domestic and commercial spaces and can be installed in multiples and in addition to The Blum Wall Light. The intricate spun-steel filters light and projects it into a play of light and shadow on surrounding walls, creating a stunning display wherever it's positioned.
