Fontana Arte Parola Suspension

The Fontana Arte Parola Suspension Lamp, designed in 1980 by Gae Aulenti and Piero Castiglioni, is a refined addition to the iconic Parola collection. This pendant light embodies a harmonious balance of artisanal craftsmanship and industrial precision, featuring a blown glass diffuser available in opaline white or amber. The diffuser's softly rounded form diffuses light gently, creating a warm and inviting glow that enhances both residential and commercial interiors.

Suspended from a sleek transparent power cable, the Parola Suspension Lamp is ideal for illuminating dining tables, kitchen islands, or entryways. Its minimalist silhouette, combined with its timeless glass construction, adds a subtle yet sophisticated elegance to any setting. A perfect blend of form and function, this suspension lamp exemplifies Fontana Arte's dedication to high-quality design and enduring aesthetics.
