Fontana Arte Parola Wall Light

Designed by the renowned duo Gae Aulenti and Piero Castiglioni in 1980, the Fontana Arte Parola Wall Light exemplifies the perfect balance between artistry and technical innovation. This elegant wall lamp features a hand-blown glass diffuser available in amber or white, offering a soft, diffused glow that enhances the atmosphere of any interior. Its design integrates three distinct glassworking techniques—blown glass, natural glass, and natural crystal—showcasing a masterful blend of craftsmanship and industrial precision.

The Parola Wall Light is ideal for creating inviting lighting in hallways, bedrooms, or living rooms. Its timeless design and versatile functionality make it suitable for both classic and contemporary interiors, while its ambient lighting effect adds warmth and sophistication to any setting. A seamless fusion of aesthetic and utility, the Parola Wall Light is a beautiful expression of Fontana Arte's commitment to innovative design.
