PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Sir Kenneth Grange & Margaret Howell

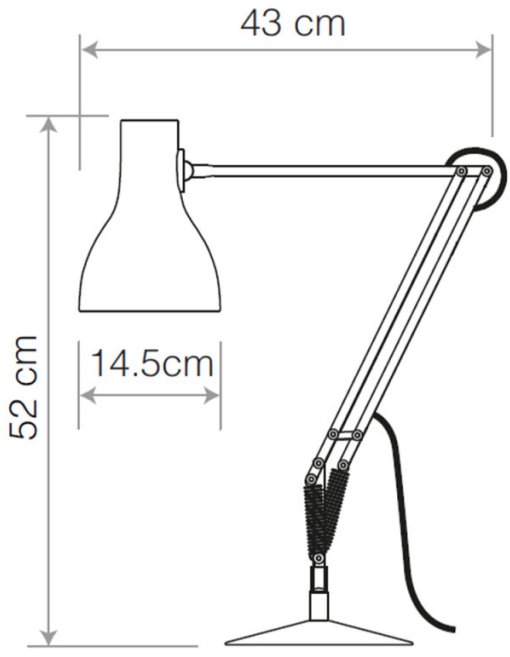

Anglepoise Margaret Howell Type 75 Desk Lamp

The Anglepoise + Margaret Howell Type 75 Desk Lamp was born from a collaboration between Margaret Howell and Anglepoise design director Sir Kenneth Grange. This collaboration resulted in three vibrant new finishes for the Type 75 Desk Lamp: Yellow Ochre, Saxon Blue, and Sienna. After finding an old Anglepoise lamp from the 1970s, Margaret Howell colour-matched the lamp to create the stunning Yellow Ochre colour, which was first released in 2012. Howell has since developed more bold finishes that echo vintage design, resulting in a range of iconic and stylish lamps.

Sir Kenneth Grange's sleek and contemporary Type 75 Desk Lamp design brought Anglepoise into the 21st century, producing a light that is both functional and fashionable. The Type 75 features the signature Anglepoise spring mechanism, allowing for easy adjustment of the arm and shade to focus light where required. This directional lighting is perfect for lounge areas, bedrooms, and offices. Suitable for home and commercial spaces alike, the Margaret Howell edition of the Type 75 injects a splash of colour and a bold personality into any interior.
