Planet Table Lamp by Kartell

As part of the Planet collection from designer Tokujin Yoshioka, the Planet Table Lamp by Kartell is an exquisite light which is characterised by its spherical shape and reflective surface. With a crystal illusion design, this lamp creates an amazing and interesting glow that has a far-reaching light that is suitable for any room in the house.

Standing taller than the Planet Low Table Lamp, this lamp makes impact within a room and will be a talking point of your décor. Available in three colours, yellow, crystal and smoke and with a stand and base that seamlessly matches the colour of the diffuser, this table lamp will fit well within both modern and chic aesthetics.
