Original BTC Phane Prismatic Pendant Light

The Original BTC Phane Prismatic pendant light was originally inspired by a light on the Paris Metro system. Redesigned for both commercial and residential settings, the Phane Prismatic pendant light is a great central feature light providing a powerful light emission.

Available in two sizes (small and large), the Phane Prismatic pendant light by Original BTC comes with 150cm of adjustable cable to suit all ceiling heights. With beautiful prismatic glass giving an almost metallic feel the Phane Prismatic pendant remains contemporary with durable stainless steel details. The Prismatic collection by Original BTC also includes another style of pendant and also a wall light.
