Muuto Restore Tray

Part of the Restore collection made of recycled plastic bottles, the Tray is the smallest with a large personality! The size allows you to fit it everywhere, while the soft texture means you can store pretty much anything from magazines, to clothes, and toys. The felt is made of plastic bottles which have been granulated, heated and then blown and dyed. Then the felt is worked on and pressed onto heat-influenced forms to give its final shape.

The designer, Mika Tolvanen, wished to create a basket with a humble and simple character that could still make a strong statement. The choice of recycled and soft material makes it a versatile object. You can select your Restore Tray in two sizes and a wide range of colour options.
