Davide Groppi Shoji Floor Lamp

Shoji Floor Lamp was designed by Davide Groppi and Paola Lenti who teamed up together in 2013. The sophisticated design serves as evidence of the incredible artistry displayed by both designers. The name Shoji emulates the traditional Japanese sliding doors which are usually constructed from bamboo paper. Shoji Floor Lamp is a traditional style lamp with a contemporary twist, adding a timeless element to any décor, whether residential or commercial.

The Shoji Floor Lamp offers powerful illumination with its high wattage capacity, making it ideal for lighting up any space. Additionally, its inline dimmer feature allows you to easily create the perfect ambient environment.
