Resident Hex 500 Pendant

The Resident Hex 500 Pendant brings together modern design and functionality with its geometric precision and minimalist aesthetic. Designed in-house at Resident Studio, this pendant light features a hexagonal frame handmade in New Zealand. Its integrated LED light source shines through recessed frosted acrylic, producing a soft, ambient glow. Suspended by slim-line wires, the Hex 500 Pendant seamlessly floats in your space, offering elegance and practicality.

Available in a matt black finish, the Hex 500 is ideal as a standalone statement piece or displayed in groups. Its clean lines and innovative design make it suitable for residential and commercial spaces alike, adding a refined touch to any room.

Please note, this product is also available in aluminium and white finishes, please contact us for further information and pricing.
