The Flos Bon Jour Table Lamp, designed by Philippe Starck, is the epitome of timeless elegance and high-technology dematerialisation. With a body that is ethereal, pure and almost immaterial, this contemporary table lamp casts a pool of warm light – perfect for a bedside table, reading nook or workspace. The Bon Jour's naked, transparent base can be customized with a variety of interchangeable finishings and materials, expressing personal taste.

The base of the Flos Bon Jour Table Lamp comes in a choice of four colours: chrome, matt chrome, matt white and polished copper and can have a crown added in the following colours and finishes: transparent, smoke, fabric and rattan. The Bon Jour collection also includes the smaller Bon Jour Unplugged, providing you with the same ambient glow - with the advantage of portability.
