Foscarini Buds Table Lamp

The Foscarini Buds Table Lamp is a chic light that is made from a blown glass lampshade and a transparent, cylindrical base. The table lamp gets its name from nature, encapsulating all the beauty and grace that is seen in the natural world. The lampshade diffuses the light to create a soft glow, and the light also points upwards, acting as a lovely ambient lamp that is decorative and useful.

The Buds table light is available in a variety of finishes and comes in 3 distinct shapes, each having its own character and essence. Perfect for homes and commercial spaces, this table light can be used in bedrooms, lounges, dining rooms and many more. Match with other lights from the renowned and timeless Foscarini Buds collection to create a stunning spectacle in your interior.
