We currently have limited stock of one of these items in our Clearance section.

A beautiful and unique organic design, the Orchid floor lamp was designed by Rainer Mutsch for Axolight. The collection was the first design that Rainer did in collaboration with Italian brand, Axolight, and has since become a popular light. Inspired by natural blossoms, Rainer created a shade that opens up from a central pole. The pole, or stem of the lamp, has three shades facing into different directions. Orchid lights are all available in three pastel colours: white, sand or anthracite grey. Each shade emits a diffused beam light, create a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The lamp is perfect to place in your living room, bedroom, office or business.

Explore the rest of the Orchid Collection which includes a vertical and horizontal suspension light, a single and a triple ceiling/wall light.
