Resident Hex 750 LED Pendant

The Resident Hex 750 Pendant is a contemporary geometric light fixture, designed to enhance modern interiors with its minimalist style. Handmade in Auckland, New Zealand, the Hex 750 features a hexagonal frame in matt black. A high-quality integrated LED light source is diffused through recessed frosted acrylic, providing even illumination for any setting.

Perfect for both residential and commercial environments, the Hex 750 Pendant can be hung individually or in clusters to create a striking visual statement. Its sleek design and versatility make it an excellent choice for spaces ranging from kitchens and dining rooms to offices and showrooms.

Please note, this product is also available in aluminium and brass finishes, please contact us for further information and pricing.
