Lee Broom Decanterlight Pendant

The Decanterlight Pendant was designed by Lee Broom in 2010 as a majestic and sensual centrepiece in all situations. All shades are crafted from lead crystal and hand-etched with exquisite vintage patterns which resemble an old-fashioned perfume bottle. Delicately featuring subtle brushed brass detailing, this classic pendant can be featured in both commercial and residential environments thanks to its timeless aesthetic. Decanterlite can be strategically placed to produce an eye-catching sequence, resulting in a clean and striking cluster.

Lee Broom Decanterlite Pendant embodies a luxurious element that can be featured in a kitchen, staircase, or bar, especially once lit. The clear crystal shade lets you see the bulb which produces a warm ambient illumination to your space with little diffusion. Available in three shapes: square, bell, and tulip, these pendants can be hung independently or in multiples. The Decanterlight Pendant is also available in a Lee Broom Decanterlight Chandelier option.
