PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Original BTC Walter Pendant Light

The Walter pendant light by Original BTC has a unique 1960s feel with a hand blown glass shade in a choice of either anthracite or opal glass. Original BTC's production process ensures a product of premium colour, clarity and brilliance unlike homogenous mould-made glass each piece is unique, with slight variations, demonstrating the care and attention with which it has been crafted.

Coming in a choice of either satin brass or satin copper, the Walter pendant light combines striking materials and colours to create a beautiful lighting product. The Walter pendant has black cotton braided cable and a matching satin brass or satin copper ceiling rose and is available in two sizes.
