KDLN Lannà Pendant

Designed by Noé Duchaufour Lawrance, the KDLN Lannà Suspension is a poetic luminaire inspired by the Lannà people of Thailand and their tradition of releasing glowing lanterns into the night sky. Its opal diffuser, crafted from two layers of blown glass, appears to float within a slender coated metal frame, creating a composition that feels both delicate and refined.

When illuminated, Lannà produces a soft, intimate glow that brings warmth and atmosphere to living rooms, dining areas, bedrooms, and hospitality spaces. Available with a black or brass finish, the suspension combines sculptural elegance with versatile functionality, making it ideal as a single statement pendant or arranged in multiples for a more dramatic effect.
