KDLN Kushi Mobile LED Portable Table Lamp

The KDLN Kushi Portable Lamp was designed by Alberto Saggia and Valerio Sommella after the duo took an inspiring trip to Japan. The name Kushi, meaning skewer in Japanese, refers to the rod that appears to pierce the opal diffuser. The industrial appearance of the metal rod beautifully balances the lamp's delicate appearance, creating a striking contrast of materials. Available in Black, Brass, and Copper, the Kushi adds a sense of luxury and elegance to interiors.

The Kushi Portable Lamp is easily transportable, allowing users to move it anywhere that requires soft, ambient lighting. Once charged via the included micro-USB charging cable, the Kushi provides around five and a half hours of light. Carry it with you to the living room, bedroom, or reading nook to add a touch of harmony and character to the space.
