Tom Dixon Melt Table Lamp

Available in copper, the Tom Dixon Melt is a collection of wonderfully misshapen lighting globes that create a mesmerising melting blown glass result.

Part of the Melt's attractiveness is the difference between when it is lit and when it is off. Even when off the Melt fills any room with a sense of enchantment with its mirror-like shine and when on, the Melt bathes interiors with a warm and ambient light and the mirror finish transcends into a translucent sphere.

The Tom Dixon Melt Collection also includes pendants in two sizes, multiple canopy options, a floor lamp and wall lights.
