DCW éditions In The Sun

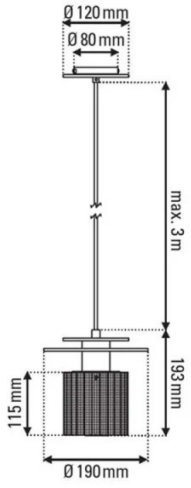

BRAND NEW, OVERSTOCKED, ORIGINAL PACKAGING.
1 x Gold / 190 Available.

The In The Sun pendant was designed by Dominique Perrault and Gaëlle Lauriot-Prévost as part of the renovation of the Pavillion Dufour at the Chateau de Versailles. The historic French palace has its origins in the 17th Century, with one of the most notable royals, Louis XIV, expanding the estate and pursuing many new building projects throughout his reign. Now referred to as the Sun King, the designers pay homage to Louis XIV with this beautiful pendant light which features at the new renovation.

The In The Sun pendant lamp has gorgeous sunny hues, creating a magical and warm glow that is effective and lovely in any space. The lampshade has a mesh quality with clear lines, is available in gold, and is topped by a rounded metal plate which is also available in gold or silver with a matching ceiling canopy.
