Petite Friture Vertigo Medium Pendant Light

The Vertigo Medium Pendant by Petite Friture is made from ribbon and therefore has a lightweight form which is moved by the slightest breeze, casting a wonderful display across the walls and ceilings of the rooms that it adorns. Adding a touch of fragility and softness to interiors, no two Vertigos are ever the same due to each one falling uniquely once hung.

Available in three sizes, the Vertigo Medium Pendant Light by Constance Guisset is the middle size of the three, providing an inspiring light display. This version is perfect for a space that would be overwhelmed by the larger Vertigo Pendant, available in a range of chic colours, proving a perfect choice for many spaces and design schemes.

The Petite Friture Vertigo Pendant can be purchased with a 10m cable on request. Please Contact Us for further information and pricing.
