PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Sam Baron

So-Sage Toulouse Pendant Light by Petite Friture

Designed by Sam Baron, in collaboration with Petite Friture, the So-Sage Toulouse pendant is shaped like a string of sausages, which you would typically see at your local butcher's shop or market. The small light bulb sits in the top, exposed by the clear glass structure, and twinkling through to provide a mischievous glow that is playful and striking.

The Toulouse pendant lamp is suitable for small spaces, as a main source of light, or in bigger spaces when used in multiple. You can put into rows or clusters and create a spectacular light feature that will draw the eye. Also match with other pendants from the Petite Friture So-Sage collection, to create a intriguing aesthetic throughout your interior, whether in the home or at work.
