Resident Bloom Table Lamp

The Resident Bloom Table Lamp, designed by Tim Rundle, reinterprets the timeless elegance of paper lanterns in a compact form. Its frosted blown glass shade, paired with a perforated mesh core, emits a soft, diffused light that creates a captivating interplay of textures. Sitting on a plated stainless steel base, the table lamp projects a warm glow both upwards and downwards, enhancing any surface or room.

Ideal for bedside tables, desks, or sideboards, the Bloom Table Lamp adds sophistication to contemporary interiors. Its unique blend of contrasting materials and meticulous craftsmanship ensures a beautiful lit effect, making it a versatile addition to the Bloom collection.
