Resident Circus 250 LED Pendant

The Resident Circus 250 LED Pendant Light showcases an intricate design of interconnected rings, each measuring 25cm in diameter. This pendant utilises integrated LED technology to provide a warm, diffused 360° glow, perfect for enhancing the ambiance of any space. Available in a brass finish, the Circus 250 is offered in configurations ranging from 2 to 11 rings, catering to both small and large interior designs.

With its modern aesthetic and versatile functionality, the Circus 250 pendant light is an ideal choice for residential and commercial settings. Whether used as a standalone fixture or in combination with other lighting elements, it creates a contemporary and sophisticated focal point. For larger designs, consider the complementary Circus 750 pendant.

Please note, this product is also available in Two, Four, Six, Eight, Ten and Eleven Ring configurations, as well as a black finish across all sizes, please contact us for further information and pricing.
