PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Light Attack Rap LED Downlight

This downlight features an outstandingly thin trim that blends into the ceiling. The recessed LED light source is diffused by the optical compartment, providing high levels of visual comfort. This highly functional downlight is perfect for lighting hallways, walkways or dining spaces, where glare should be avoided, but can also be used in task areas like kitchens or bathrooms.

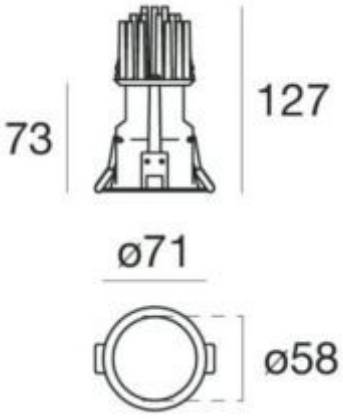

Thanks to the IP44 rating, this light can be used in bathroom zones 2 and 3.

Also available with different beam angles. For more information, please contact us.

Please Note: The Light Attack Rap Downlight is supplied with a remote dedicated driver. Please contact us for further information.
