Designer: Paavo Tynell

Gubi Tynell 1965 Pendant Light

Originally designed in 1947 for Finland House in New York, the Tynell 1965 Pendant Light exemplifies the refined elegance of Paavo Tynell's work. Its brass shade features intricate triangular perforations, a hallmark of Tynell's craftsmanship, which creates subtle patterns of light and shadow. The frosted glass diffuser softens the light, producing a serene and inviting atmosphere perfect for living rooms, dining areas, and other communal spaces.

With its timeless design and delicate detailing, the 1965 Pendant is as much a functional light as it is a statement piece. The pendant's clean lines and graceful curves bring a sense of understated luxury, while its five available finishes, including brass and Bistro Green, allow for seamless integration into various interiors.

Whether used individually or in multiples, the Tynell 1965 Pendant is a versatile and sophisticated addition to any modern or classic décor, demonstrating the enduring appeal of mid-century design.
