The Jewel was the first design that Yonoh, founded by Clara del Portillo and Alex Selma, created for Axolight. It is its peculiar design that makes it stand out, a double-crossed arch. Since its launch in 2018, the Jewel was the first Axolight product that is made of nylon and recycled glass. It marked the World Environment Day, which was dedicated to plastic waste. Jewel 03 suspension light is a three piece - 3 Jewel lights are hanging from a rectangular ceiling canopy in a linear arrangement.

Jewel 03 is an elegant light, with small dimensions and an overall streamlined design. Ideally situated above a dining table, a reception area or above any area or furniture you wish to accentuate. The designers themselves suggest that while any Jewel light looks stunning as a standalone, you may wish to create a combination of multiple lights; especially for commercial spaces. With an integrated LED source, the Jewel lights are dimmable via 1-10V dimming systems. The Jewel Lights are also available with 1 single Jewel light, 4 Jewel lights suspending from a square ceiling canopy and 10 Jewel lights with a circular canopy.
