Luceplan E04 Ceiling Light

The Luceplan e04 Ceiling Light was designed by Habits Design Studio in 2006, and takes inspiration from architectural style. The recessed light source prevents glare and improves visual comfort, it can also be easily adjusted and directed where needed, resulting in both style and functionality.

This elegant and minimalistic design is perfect for illuminating smaller spaces such as hallways, or can be used as a powerful task light in kitchens.

Available in 2 sizes (see spec sheet for reference).

Also available in a range of colours
