PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Michael Anastassiades

Michael Anastassiades Ball Light Wall Bracket Flex

The Michael Anastassiades Ball Light Wall Bracket Flex is a refined wall-mounted fixture offering elegant versatility. The opaline glass sphere provides a soft, diffused light, framed by a polished brass, nickel, or copper-plated bracket.

Ideal for living spaces, reading nooks, or hallways, this light embodies Michael Anastassiades' philosophy of simplicity and material authenticity. The unlacquered finish develops a natural patina over time, ensuring the fixture gains character and beauty as it ages.

This product is also available in a Custom Patina Finish by request only, please contact us to discuss pricing and availability.

Please note, this product comes with a 200cm Flex length by default, for a custom length please contact us to specify your preference.
