Michael Anastassiades Architectural Sconce Wall Light

The Michael Anastassiades Architectural Sconce Wall Light seamlessly combines timeless craftsmanship with a contemporary aesthetic. Drawing inspiration from the Brass Architectural and Sconce collections, this refined piece exemplifies Anastassiades' dedication to minimalism and elegance. Featuring a mouth-blown opaline glass diffuser paired with polished brass or nickel-plated brass finishes, the sconce radiates a soft, ambient glow that enhances any space with understated luxury. The geometric simplicity of its design transforms it into a functional piece of art, perfect for modern interiors seeking a touch of sophistication.

Ideal for residential and commercial settings, the Architectural Sconce Wall Light adds a harmonious balance of form and function to living rooms, bedrooms, or hallways. Its versatility extends to bespoke finishes such as plated copper or custom patinas, allowing for tailored integration into various design schemes. With a durable handmade construction, this light embodies both beauty and practicality, elevating spaces with its subtle yet impactful presence.

This product is also available in Custom Patina Finishes by request only, please contact us to discuss pricing and availability.
