Melting Pot 115 by Axolight

The Melting Pot 115 suspension is part of the Axolight Melting Pot collection, a range that includes various unique pendant lights and a floor lamp. The pendant is made from 4 lampshades, seemingly fused together to create a playful and innovative aesthetic. Each shade has its own pattern, providing variety in one suspension light that is unequalled.

The Melting Pot 115 pendant light provides a downward directed light from each shade, creating a strong, effective glow that works particularly well hung over tables and surfaces. Suitable as the main light for lounges, bedrooms, dining rooms and more, this suspension will add an abundance of character and will be a talking point in the room.
