Michael Anastassiades Get Set Table Lamp

The Michael Anastassiades Get Set Table Lamp is a striking design that balances form and function. A mouth-blown opaline glass sphere delicately rests on a polished bar, creating an interplay of geometric shapes that exude timeless elegance.

With its black braided flex and inline dimmer switch, this lamp offers both aesthetic appeal and practical functionality, allowing you to adjust the light to suit your mood or setting. Michael Anastassiades' attention to material authenticity ensures that the unlacquered brass will develop a natural patina over time, adding unique character to each piece.

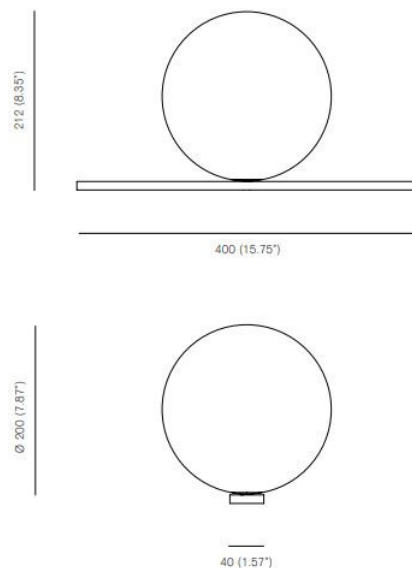

Ideal as a bedside lamp, desk light, or accent piece, the Get Set Table Lamp brings a sense of calm and refinement to any space.

This product is also available in Custom Patina Finishes by request only, please contact us to discuss pricing and availability.
