Moooi The Party Wall Lights

The Party Wall Lights were created by design duo Kranen/Gille. The collection of wall lights is created using cast ceramic, each sharing the same tactile and subtle rough finish. Each light is distinguished by small differences that make up its individual style. When lit, the opening at the bottom of the shade directs light downward into a soft glare that bathes the wall below in a warm glow. Display individually or together to form a party that brightens up any space with playful characters. Install in a bedroom, dining room, or lounge to create a dynamic display with a bold and fun personality.

To better introduce you to the party, first, we have Bert, the darkest member of the group, greedy and jealous. Then we have the patriotic soul of the Party, Glenn, a man with a mission, searching for clarity through ideology and order. Then we have a prestigious Mayor who thinks a lot of himself and sees the world through his monocle. The only lady in the party is Coco, a conventional mother, lover and woman who knows how to take care of herself. And last but not least, Ted, who went down the wrong path in his youth and whose face is the only one with no identifiable traits.
