PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Ramírez i Carrillo

Marset Copernica P190 Floor Lamp

the Copernica collection was designed by Ramírez i Carrillo in 2017 for Marset Barcelona. The upright version of the Copernica, a true statement piece, stands almost two meters in height and directly or indirectly illuminates the environment with its tilting head system.

With the use of simplistic shapes circles, semicircles, tubes, and bars of different diameters, Marset has created a stylish geometric sculpture of light.

The Marset Copernica collection comprises of a table lamp and two floor lamp options, making it easier than ever to find a lamp to suit your needs. The Copernica 1960 floor lamp is ideal for tasks because of the directional light source. The design lends itself to both domestic and commercial spaces.
