Artemide New Nature App Compatible Floor Lamp

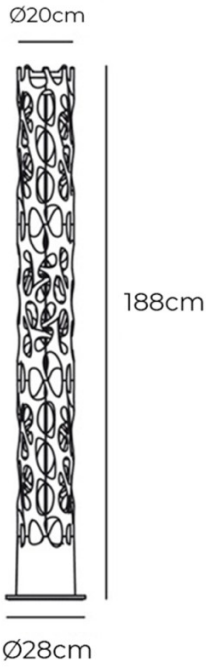

Another example by Ross Lovegrove, the New Nature Floor Lamp is highly fluid and organic in form, inspired by Nature. The light is projected through the patterns and creates a beautiful game of light and shadows onto the wall and surroundings. Lovegrove's designs are a perfect mixture of material science, technology and organic form. This has led many leading interior designers to consider it the aesthetics of the century.

The Artemide New Nature design is one that instantly draws the eye and becomes a conversation starter. Standing at 188cm high, the lamp is a captivating sculptural piece. The lamp benefits from a dual light source, an indirect at the top and a diffused on the base, which highlights the lamp's interior.
