Artemide nh Wall Light

Neri&Hu, in collaboration with Artemide, have been studying the interaction between details, materials, expertise, and form from which the nh lights were born. A modern take on the Chinese lanterns, as the designers continue to pay tribute to the Oriental culture. The nh wall light has a glass-blown diffuser, sitting on a brass ring and hanging from a brass handle. You can hang the light on the wall or use the frame as support, allowing you to utilise the light as you wish.

The Artemide nh Wall Light represents the designers, Neri & Hu, constant contemporary approach to more traditional traditions. As conveyed by the low consumption LED light source and choice of materials, the design further supports sustainability.

Please Note: The nh Wall Lamp comes with a cable and plug, so needs to be installed near a socket.
