HAY Nelson Ball Bubble Pendant

Designed by George Nelson, the HAY Nelson Ball Bubble Pendant takes inspiration from silk-covered Swedish hanging lamps, reimagined with a lightweight steel frame and spray-on polymer shade. The result is an iconic mid-century pendant that appears to float overhead while casting a soft, atmospheric glow.

The spherical shade diffuses the bulb beautifully, creating a warm, even light that feels soft rather than harsh. It works particularly well above dining tables, kitchen islands, bedside areas, stairwells, hallways, living spaces and hospitality settings where a sculptural yet understated feature light is needed. Available in small, medium and large sizes, the pendant can be used alone for a clean focal point or grouped at varied heights for a more dramatic display. Its off-white polymer shade and simple ceiling plate keep the look timeless, making it easy to pair with both modern and classic interiors.
